

The Conifer Historical Society Presents How the 1859 Gold Rush Put Colorado on the Map

1859 brought 100,000 fortune seekers to Colorado. In their quest for gold, they established settlements and blazed numerous trails. Learn how this influenced maps of today.

Presented by Wes Brown, co-founder of Rocky Mountain Map Society

At The Little White Schoolhouse
26951 Barkley Road in Conifer

Sunday, Feb 10 1pm

$8/$10 (mem/non)

RSVP 303-396-5975 or at

ConiferHistoricalSociety.org

