

The United States of America,

To all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting:

Homestead Certificate No. 102

Application 127

Whereas There has been deposited in the General Land Office of the United States a Certificate of the Register of the Land Office at Leadville Colorado, whereby it appears that, pursuant to the Act of Congress approved 20th May, 1862, "To secure Homesteads to actual Settlers on the Public Domain," and the acts supplemental thereto, the claim of Isahel Smith has been established and duly consummated, in conformity to law, for the south half of the south east quarter of section one and the north half of the north east quarter of section twelve in township seven south of range seventy two west of the Sixth Principal Meridian in Colorado containing one hundred and sixty acres according to the Official Plat of the Survey of the said Land, returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General.

Now know ye, That there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said Isahel Smith the tract of Land above described: To have and to hold the said tract of Land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said Isahel Smith and to his heirs and assigns forever; subject to any vested and accrued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing, or other purposes, and rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection with such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws, and decisions of courts, and also subject to the right of the proprietor of a vein or lode to extract and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or intersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law.

In testimony whereof, I, Grover Cleveland, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the Seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the thirtieth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty six, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and tenth

BY THE PRESIDENT:

Grover Cleveland
By M. M. Kern, Secretary.
S. W. Clark, Recorder of the General Land Office.
